'Lucy Bloom is the perfect keynote speaker to open an event, ignite the thoughts of your delegates and plant seeds of thought that will grow throughout your event. Lucy's energy, humour and unique voice set her apart from other speakers in Australia. I always choose a theme for my events and work with the speakers to interpret this in as creative a way as they can. Lucy took our theme and ran with it – I couldn't have anticipated or imagined the direction that she created – and it was wonderful. My audience can be tricky – but she had them in the palm of her hand, at the end of each idea and wrapped in her warmth and humour. Thanks, Lucy for a setting the scene for a great Summit!'
