YOUR MASTER OF CEREMONIES, MC

More than a keynote speaker

When you book Lucy Bloom as your MC, you're not just locking in your presenter, you're enlisting a high-energy orchestrator who makes sure your event pulses with momentum from start to finish.

Lucy doesn't just stand at a podium reading a script. She fuels energy and engagement, with structure and fun because no one remembers the conference that was dry, predictable or slow.

Your MC is not an afterthought because as your master of ceremonies, she doesn't only introduce other voices. She actively weaves together the fabric of your event. Her presence ensures smooth transitions, timely pacing, and an upbeat event that keeps audiences engaged and content flowing naturally. She is also famous for her recaps.

When Lucy Bloom is your Master of Ceremonies MC she is:

1. Entertaining and humorous. She doesn't just speak, she laughs, connects, and lifts the room.
2. Reliable with timing. Lucy keeps events on track without compromising warmth or spontaneity.
3. Adapts quickly. Fill 20 minutes because morning tea is running late? No problemo. Fast track the next panel to trim 7 minutes, no more and no less? On it. Dance to this MC Hammer track with a sponsor? Righto.
4. Intelligent and relatable. Her wit comes fused with insight, grounded in leadership and experience.
